Alberta Government, "Province seeks input on new energy regulator" (February 13, 2013)

The Government of Alberta announced on February 13 that it will be holding public consultation sessions as part of its process to develop the new regulations under the Responsible Energy Development Act. Public consultation sessions are taking place in 18 communities across the province and began on Wednesday, February 20. A list of the 18 sessions can be found on the Alberta Energy "Regulatory Enhancement Project" web page. The Calgary session will take place on February 25, 2013 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Glenmore Inn and Convention Centre, 2720 Glenmore Trail SE.

Anyone wishing to participate but unable to attend a scheduled session on such short notice can complete an online survey.

The announcement notes that the Alberta Energy Regulator is expected to begin operations in June of 2013. For more on the Responsible Energy Development Act, including the critical role of regulations, see previous ABlawg posts:
